- TR may at its sole discretion and option at any time prior to payment in full for the Equipment and for any other Equipment supplied by TR for which payment is outstanding:
- suspend or cancel the Sale Agreement;
 - require payment in cash before delivery of the Equipment or services (irrespective of any terms of payment previously specified);
 - take over or repossess the Equipment and dispose of the Equipment without prejudice to any claim TR may have for damages for any loss resulting from any re sale or disposal of the Equipment;
 - exercise all rights to the Equipment as if it were the owner.
- This clause shall apply notwithstanding any waiver by TR of any default or failure by the Purchaser to comply with these terms and conditions and without prejudice to its other rights under this Agreement.

- 10.2. If the Purchaser is in default of this Sale Agreement the Purchaser consents to TR its servants and agents entering the Purchaser's premises, or any other premises where the Equipment is located, using such force as is necessary in order to repossess the Equipment. The Purchaser must provide TR with all reasonable assistance in order to locate and collect the Equipment. If the Equipment is not available for collection at the nominated time and or place the Purchaser will be liable for any additional costs TR incur. TR will not be liable for any damage to property caused by any person in collecting the Equipment.

11. PAYMENT

Payment terms are strictly thirty (30) days from date of invoice unless otherwise stated in the Sale Agreement. If any amount is due and unpaid, the Customer agrees to pay interest on the overdue amount at the rate of 7% higher than the Reserve Bank of Australia's 90 day bill rate calculated daily until payment in full is received and the Equipment has been returned. The Customer is liable for all additional costs TR may incur, including legal, administrative and collection costs to recover unpaid amounts.

12. RETENTION OF TITLE

At all times the property in the Equipment remains with TR (irrespective of delivery of the Equipment to the Purchaser) until the Purchaser has paid the full invoiced price and any other payments due to TR in respect of the Equipment arising out of this Sale Agreement.

13. SPECIAL LICENCE

In the event that any item of Equipment or component of an item of Equipment contains a copyright work or other thing to which intellectual property rights subsist, usage thereof shall be by way of licence only upon the terms and conditions of the owners licence. The Purchaser shall not do or cause or permit to be done anything in contravention of such licence and subject to all limitations and obligations imposed by such licence.

14. RENTAL EQUIPMENT

Any quotation or any Sale Agreement for the Equipment which is currently or was previously on hire to the Purchaser shall be additionally subject to the conditions that all of the terms of the rental agreement are complied with. Rent will continue to accrue up to the date of payment of the sale invoice. Payment shall be applied first to rent and second to sale price.
